Summary of reasons for decision:

The publication is a naturist documentary presenting a day out at a lake for a group of men, teenagers and children. The naturists participate in a variety of outdoor activities, including swimming with inflatable toys, games on the grass next to the lake, and body painting.

The unrestricted availability of the publication is unlikely to be injurious to the public good. Although nudity features throughout, it is not sexualised in any way. The content of the publication does not bring it within the subject matter gateway, nor does it deal with s3A or s3B of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. Therefore the publication can only be classified as unrestricted. Parental guidance is recommended for younger viewers due to nudity. This classification does not interfere with the right to freedom of expression in terms of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
